Spectacular villa designed by the prestigious architect Fran Silvestre. It occupies a privileged location next to the prestigious Valderrama Golf Club, and without a doubt, stands out as one of the most exclusive and unique properties in Sotogrande. Its avant-garde design is characterized by fluid architecture that invites a visual experience through its varied spaces, offering impressive panoramic views of the surrounding landscape.

The exterior morphology of the house has been meticulously planned to make the most of the extension of its plot. Its arrangement in a long diagonal creates the sensation that the different sections of the villa are connected only at their vertices, while inside, they intertwine in a constant interaction.

The upper floor opens onto a large terrace that functions as the roof of the central part of the villa and extends in both directions: towards the outside, where the pool is located, and towards the interior of the plot, reaching the limits of the Upper level.

With its three-dimensional configuration and an uninterrupted succession of spaces, the structure of the villa attracts the eye, encouraging one to follow its shape, ...
