One of the most unique estates on the Mediterranean Coast.

It sits on a hilltop with a magnificent view of the sea, Gibraltar, the African Coast, Guadiaro River and the wooded hills of this part of the coast. It is located three kilometers from the beach, near the worlds famous golf courses, International polo fields and the Marina. The estate exudes grandeur and timeless style. Its unique architecture is flush with detail inspired by famous Italian Renaissance villas, yet the atmosphere is entirely modern, and has a very comfortable living space. Driving up to the tree lined driveway, one feels like they are being transported to another time, in a world of Greek mythology, with its many nooks, hidden mermaid sculptures and fountains that add tranquility to the enchantment of the park.

The magnificent neoclassical interiors was done by Christopher Hobbs, who also restored the neo classical wing of Victoria and Albert Museum. The Moorish design part of the villa took four years to build. The impressive double dome, as well as a series of heavily ornamented, oriental style bedrooms and its Moorish style baths provide an exotic contrast from the rest of the building. ...

About the Zone

San Enrique is a small town located along the Guadiaro river very close to Sotogrande. It is a zone very related to Polo and equestrian as many bring to breed, train and enjoy their horses there. It is very calm with only 1000 people living there. The houses are large "finca" plots with lots of land. San Enrique is the typical spanish village to experience the countryside while still having the ...
